

SAR Sharing Session – Georgia

R. Marie Bruner

Girl's Domain - Where Girls Rule Technology: Columbus (GA) Branch partners with Soroptimist International and Girls, Inc sponsoring a computer club for middle school and teen girls. The project is the result of a Woman-to-Woman Dialogue. Girls Domain Technology Club receives funding from the AAUW Educational Foundation and Soroptimist International. Contact: Lavonda Forbes, Project Director, Columbus Branch AAUW, 5702 Ventura Drive, Columbus, GA 31909, 706-324-7440. Lavonda_Forbes@knology.net.

Women's Health Issues was a breakout session for the Atlanta Branch Woman to Woman Summit. The support and participation from the Georgia Department of Health was worthy of several breakout sessions. Contact: Alta Birdsong, Atlanta Branch Co-president, Kandabird@aol.com.

The World of Muslim Women: This Cobb County (GA) Branch project was a coalition with the Arab-American Ladies Society that generated interest across the area creating a standing room only panel event. Contact: Sylvia Goodyear, Atlanta Branch President, smgoodyear@mindspring.com.

Reading is Fundamental provides books to children in need and is sponsored by the Milledgeville (GA) Branch. Contact: Paula Payne, Milledgeville Branch, 478-451-0415.

Phone calling cards is a cost saving initiative by AAUW of Georgia. Phone calling cards are purchased for each elected state officer and the state LAF and EF chairs. The 500 minutes cards cost $17.50 each at Sam's Club and save a minimum of $150.00 annually for the state president alone. The program also enhances productivity of officers and chairs and encourages them to make personal contacts. Contact: R. Marie Bruner, Incoming State President, RMarieB@aol.com.