

The American Association of University Women of N.C. and Democracy North Carolina Proudly Present:

A MATTER OF JUSTICE: JUDICIAL ELECTION AND SELECTION

UNC School of Law
Van Hecke-Wattach Hall Room 4085
Thursday February 19, 2004
6:30-8:30 PM

Join us for a community discussion of Federal Judicial appointments and recent changes in the NC judicial elections process. Learn about the roles of federal and state judges, how they are chosen, and where citizens can go for information on judicial nominees and candidates. Find out how citizens can influence who gets appointed and elected to the highest courts in our nation and state.

Featured Speakers:

NC Court of Appeals Judge Wanda G. Bryant

Louis Billonis, Samuel Ashe Distinguished
Professor of Constitutional Law,
UNC School of Law

Bob Hall, Co-Director, Democracy North Carolina

Topics will include:

- Roles of State and Federal Judges
- Federal Judicial Appointment Process
- Judicial Reform in North Carolina

Join us for a reception from 6:30-6:45. Speakers will begin at 6:45 followed by a group discussion.

This event is FREE and we want you to be there!

For more information, contact Beth Messersmith at 919-967-9942 or e-mail: bethmessersmith@democracy-nc.org