Oh, What an Evening!

We'll have time to celebrate our history and to greet new and old friends at the Diamond Jubilee reception. At dinner, two representative from each branch will lift their voices in songs from earlier years. Some may even dress up to mark the era they are celebrating. Our own talented Clara Allen from Chapel Hill is coordinating and directing this chorus.

Branch Banners—A Fun Part of 75th AAUW NC Convention

Mary Fran Schickedantz

We need all you old "girl scouts" (as well as branch members) to "be prepared" by having your Branch Banners up front and ready for the grand entry on Saturday morning of the AAUW-NC 75th convention.

Each branch should have received a 10" PVC pipe through the mail (if you didn't get it at the Fall Board Meeting) for the banner stand, along with complete instructions for making the banner, pole, rod, and flag stand. Please e-mail me at pds@infi.net or call me, 336.299.6870, if you do not have your pipe or this information.

The design on the banner will be what makes your branch unique. It should include:

- Branch name and charter date
- How You Define Yourself, i.e., project in community you are known for or plan to do
- What your region is known for

You may decorate the rest in a manner that would tell others about "you."

Hopefully, you will get your banner made so that it can be used even before convention. Please take a picture of the banner with those who created it. Also, we will have a "drawing" for those submitting pictures of their banners being used at community events.

Be sure to designate one branch member to carry the banner. She should report to the registration desk by 8 a.m. on March 16.
